OH never fear...HQ will be reviewing the entire plan, Rick, as they did the last time.
Thanks.

Joan,

The plan looks good to me. It is probably a good idea to make sure HQ sees this one particular part of the Q&A to make sure they are OK with us saying it if a reporter asked the question:

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I cannot think of anything else that we would want to post right now. Once we have discussions with Chemours and send them a letter documenting the agree-upon next steps, we can post that.

Folks – I'm attaching the draft Comms Plan for review – please respond to me by this afternoon, if possible, with your suggestions or edits. I'd like to get this to the front office by COB Today.

(Rick/Roger – quick question == besides the sampling results, is there anything additional that needs to be posted on the website?)

Thank you SO much.

Joan

See below for my input in red.

The Qs&As are just for desk statement type responses, not for publishing on the web site, correct?

If we go out early this week with the announcement regarding the recent sampling, we will be doing so prior to the conversation with Chemours and their agreement to continue sampling.

Please take a look at the statements below and ensure they are accurate at this time. Also, please respond to the last question regarding Next Steps.

Once I hear back from you on Monday, I'll create the comms plan incorporating these statements to share with both the front office and with HQ.

Please advise – thank you very much.

Joan
